

G-FORCE DILDO

"The value, quality and approachability of Tantus products is widely recognized and their design breakthroughs quickly rise to the top of our best seller lists."

— Joyce Solano
Director of Purchasing, Babeland

the adventure begins

This handled sexual health product fits perfect in your grip, and feels good within you, too. The G-Force is a perfect solo toy that tilts toward the g-spot and gives you the reach that most dildos don't have. Its length brings variety; it can be used solo or with a partner, and by both him and here. The G-Force is made from a harder silicone to provide more stability for the length.
size: 1.4" x 10.3"

Each Tantus product is meticulously manufactured by hand in the U.S.A. With pride and precision our craftsmen use the finest materials available creating the world's best sexual health products on the market. Tantus is a 100% green manufacturer and all of our sexual products are healthy for the body™ - they are, always completely, non-toxic and phthalate free.
